Did You Know?

In 1858, the Euclid Township Trustees purchased two acres of land on the northeast corner of Highland and Richmond Road for $120. Soon after, they built a one-room brick school called the Richmond Settlement School. It was condemned in 1897, and in 1899, they built a second one-room brick building called Maple Grove, and more often referred to as the Claribel School.
