MAYOR'S MESSAGE

Richmond Heights Mayor
David H. Roche

Welcome to our e-newsletter publication. Did you know that the Community Partnership on Aging offers a Summer Repair Program to assist aged 60 and up homeowners in their six-city service area with interior and exterior home repairs? Priority is given to those who have received a housing code violation. Projects could include exterior painting & staining, screen repair, fence repair, and other minor repairs. Projects they will not consider include landscaping, yardwork, interior painting, cleaning, electrical, plumbing, HV/AC, carpet cleaning, gutter cleaning, or tree trimming. Please contact Volunteer Services to request an application at 216-291-3903 or hanm@communitypartnershiponaging.org. Applications due by April 30, 2021.

FRIENDS OF EUCLID CREEK WILL PRESENT DR. ROY LARICK ON “USING ON-LINE APPS TO IMPROVE YOUR HOME AND THE WATERSHED” APRIL 27, 7:00 P.M. These demonstrations will show how to use automated tools such as I-Tree Design, Arbor Day Community Canopy Tree Calculator, and other apps. This program will help homeowners, city service workers and planners, resource managers, and general landscapers learn how to plan placement of trees, rain gardens, etc. in a sustainable way. You will learn to understand residential parcels in the larger watershed context and see that we do on the land affects the greater environment. To register for this zoom program, go to <https://www.friendsofeuclidcreek.com/events> by 4/25/2021.
